EQUINE Sports Council

We are excited to welcome the Dixie Cup Horse Show to the Equine Sports Council Network for 2021. ESC is a non-profit, non-member organization that provides horse shows with standardized rules and guidelines. ESC's mission is to bring structure and knowledge to middle market and grassroots shows, providing an opportunity for those new to the industry to compete and learn in a constructive environment, and to give experienced exhibitors and trainers the confidence that shows in the Network will be well run. ESC offers horse shows support and protection by providing a $6M Officials Liability Insurance policy and, in the event of a rule violation, by providing grievance procedures and an impartial, third party hearing process to settle a dispute.

In 2019, trainers, owners, and exhibitors at Town Hall meetings throughout the country voted to support the exploration of an alternative governing body. ESC was founded in late 2019 by Shane Darnell, Jackie Hale, and Tamara Tucker, ESQ. They've worked with industry leaders to build a governing body customized to our show horse breeds, with the goal of reinvesting in grassroots horse shows and academy programs which will, in turn, contribute to the future growth of our industry. With the assistance of the late Dr. Scott Bennet, ESC also developed a Drug and Medication policy and is offering optional drug testing in 2021.

ESC has no membership fees. The organization is funded by a show participation fee of $15.00 per Performance horse and $5 per Academy rider. Paying the participation fee creates a contract between the horse's owner/exhibitor/trainer and ESC to abide by the ESC rules at the horse show. 25% of the fees collection at our show will be returned to Dixie Cup to be used at the show's discretion to promote the 2022 horse show and to support the show horse industry in your area.

Shows in the ESC Network may also be STAR shows with ASHA and AMHA, so entries will qualify for the KSF World's Championship and the Morgan Grand National.

For more information about ESC and to find out how other ASHAG shows can join the Network, visit www.EquineSportsCouncil.org or call Jackie Hale @ 205-862-
